Writing – Transcription	Writing – Handwriting	Writing – Vocabulary, Grammar & Punctuation	Writing – Composition
Pupils should be taught to: ■ use further prefixes and suffixes and understand the guidance for adding them ■ spell some words with 'silent' letters [for example, knight, psalm, solemn] ■ continue to distinguish between homophones and other words which are often confused ■ use knowledge of morphology and etymology in spelling and understand that the spelling of some words needs to be learnt specifically, as listed in English Appendix 1 ■ use dictionaries to check the spelling and meaning of words ■ use the first three or four letters of a word to check spelling, meaning or both of these in a dictionary ■ use a thesaurus.	Pupils should be taught to: ● write legibly, fluently and with increasing speed by: ● choosing which shape of a letter to use when given choices and deciding whether or not to join specific letters ■ choosing the writing implement that is best suited for a task.	Pupils should be taught to: ■ develop their understanding of the concepts set out in English Appendix 2 by: ■ recognising vocabulary and structures that are appropriate for formal speech and writing, including subjunctive forms ■ using passive verbs to affect the presentation of information in a sentence ■ using the perfect form of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause ■ using expanded noun phrases to convey complicated information concisely ■ using modal verbs or adverbs to indicate degrees of possibility ■ using relative clauses beginning with who, which, where, when, whose, that or with an implied (i.e. omitted) relative pronoun ■ learning the grammar for years 5 and 6 in English Appendix 2 ■ indicate grammatical and other features by: ■ using commas to clarify meaning or avoid ambiguity in writing ■ using hyphens to avoid ambiguity ■ using brackets, dashes or commas to indicate parenthesis ■ using semi-colons, colons or dashes to mark boundaries between independent clauses ■ using a colon to introduce a list ■ punctuating bullet points consistently ■ use and understand the grammatical terminology in English Appendix 2 accurately and appropriately in discussing their writing and reading.	Pupils should be taught to: ■ plan their writing by: ■ identifying the audience for and purpose of the writing, selecting the appropriate form and using other similar writing as models for their own ■ noting and developing initial ideas, drawing on reading and research where necessary ■ in writing narratives, considering how authors have developed characters and settings in what pupils have read, listened to or seen performed ■ draft and write by: ■ selecting appropriate grammar and vocabulary, understanding how such choices can change and enhance meaning ■ in narratives, describing settings, characters and atmosphere and integrating dialogue to convey character and advance the action ■ precisising longer passages ■ using a wide range of devices to build cohesion within and across paragraphs ■ using further organisational and presentational devices to structure text and to guide the reader [for example, headings, bullet points, underlining] ■ evaluate and edit by: ■ assessing the effectiveness of their own and others' writing ■ proposing changes to vocabulary, grammar and punctuation to enhance effects and clarify meaning ■ ensuring the consistent and correct use of tense throughout a piece of writing ■ ensuring correct subject and verb agreement when using singular and plural, distinguishing between the language of speech and writing and choosing the appropriate register ■ proof-read for spelling and punctuation errors ■ perform their own compositions, using appropriate intonation, volume, and movement so that meaning is clear.
